The Full Text of the Statute with Copious Annotations

THIRD AND REVISED EDITION, 1908

By JOHN J. CRAWFORD, of the New York Bar

By Whom the Statute was Drawn

The adoption of this Law so generally by the different States, has made it one of the most important statutes ever enacted in this Country. Hardly any case now arises upon a negotiable instrument, but requires the application of some provision of the Act.

The standard edition of the Law is that prepared by the draftsman. In this Third Edition the author has cited upwards of two hundred new cases, in which the statute has been construed or applied. These are not only important in the states where they were rendered, but also in all other states where the statute is in force.

All of the original annotations are preserved. These are not merely a digest and compilation of cases, but indicate the decisions and other sources from which the various provisions of the statute were drawn. A specially important feature is that the notes point out the changes which have been made in the law.

CRAWFORD'S ANNOTATED NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS LAW, Third Edition (1908) is a neat octavo volume, bound in law canvas. Price, 3.00 net, but sent by mail or express, prepaid, on receipt of the amount.

"THE CREAM OF PROBATE LAW"

NOW READY—VOLUME 12

PROBATE REPORTS ANNOTATED

Containing (in full) over 100 cases of general interest and value decided in the highest Courts of the several States, on points of Probate Law since Vol. 11 was issued, with full notes and references and with a digest of many recent cases other than those reported in full.

The PROBATE REPORTS ANNOTATED, are handsome octavo volumes of about 800 pages each. Price $5.50 net per volume, but sent, all charges prepaid, on receipt of price. SPECIAL TERMS of payment given on complete sets.

The Beginners Problem

¶ Every young lawyer has to decide several important questions which vitally affect his whole career. Where shall he locate? Shall he open an office alone, take a partner or accept a position with an established firm? How about a working library?

¶ The failure to solve this last problem wisely has cost many a young lawyer dearly, either through his being handicapped by lack of proper tools or by a debt so large as to be a constant drag on his progress. Neither is necessary. You do not need at the outset an expensive collection of Reports, Digests, Text-books and Encyclopedias. On the other hand, you can do no more than stumble along unless your library covers the whole field. There is only one way.

Lawyers Reports Annotated

Are Reports, Digests and Text-books. Reports in that they report at the rate of 1,200 cases a year, those cases from all jurisdictions which are most valuable everywhere. Digests in that the notes furnish the best possible key to any large reference library, state or otherwise, which may be accessible. Text-Books in that the note, taking for its subject a narrow brief point, analyzes all cases and presents all the law on that point.

¶ Buy first your own state reports. Next LAWYERS REPORTS ANNOTATED. You then have an adequate working library. You can add other valuable reports, digests or text-books as special need for them may develop in your practice.

¶ We will send you free a 600 page bound book called "Desk Book for Brief Makers," showing subjects covered in 82 volumes. Send transportation, only 25 cents, in stamps, if most convenient.

¶ You can start with the New Series if you wish, 14 volumes, 1906-1908, and add 1-70 First Series, 1888-1906, later. Ask for sample pages and full information.

Street Railway Reports

ANNOTATED

Edited by BENDER & HINMAN, of the Albany, N. Y. Bar.

They report the decisions in the Federal Courts and courts of last resort of all the States from April 1, 1903, including many important cases decided by lower courts of appellate and original jurisdiction, not reported in any other series.

In announcing Vol. 5 of this series it is pertinent to quote from the first report of the Public Service Commission of the State of New York to show the value of Street Railway Reports. For the year ending June 30, 1908, the electric railways of New York report:

Passengers carried.....	1,535,017,181
Persons injured.....	3,370
Persons killed.....	440
Expended for legal services and damages....	$3,645,979

Forty per cent. (.3985) of the reported cases are thoroughly and carefully annotated.

There is now a well-defined and distinct Street Railway Law. The growth of the business is very great. To illustrate: There was expended for legal services and damages by the 799 electric railway companies in the United States during the year ending June 30, 1902, over ten million dollars ($10,288,818.00). See last U. S. Special Census Report, published in 1905, pages 75 and 77. (A new report will be made in 1909.)

The set of five volumes contains 5,348 pages, 1,395 cases, 549 notes. Less than 2 cents a case.

There is a brief digest or index of 26 pages to the important notes to be found in the set of five volumes.

The Notes and Annotations are made a Special Feature; they are as exhaustive as Text Books.

Vol. 1 was published in 1904, Vol. 5 in 1908, at the rate of one Vol. a year.

5 volumes, 1903-1908, $25.00.

Moore on Facts

A TREATISE ON THE
Weight and Value of Evidence
In Two Volumes

PRICE $12.00, DELIVERED

Bound in Full Sheep or Imported Buckram, as preferred

In discussing questions of law you quote freely from the opinions of judges. You not only let the judges argue your case for you, but you strive to compel them to do so, for you search in every quarter for reported cases wherein the point in controversy has been judically considered. Why not let the judges argue questions of fact for you? These are notoriously more difficult to decide than questions of law. Your need of aid is consequently so much the greater. If judges in reported cases have expressed their opinions concerning the weight of any of the evidence in your case, don't you think their experience, their impartiality, and their deliberation give more value to what they say than can be claimed for the utterances of a paid and zealous advocate? Be assured that some of the features of your case on the facts have received the attention of judges in other cases. Moore on Facts, and no other treatise and no digest, tells you where those cases are—in the United States, Canada, or England—and what the judges said. The primary object of Moore on Facts is to aid lawyers in the argument of questions of fact, especially in desperate cases, and to that end the author made an original exploration of the reports, and devoted many years of patient toil to the collection of material which has been carefully wrought into these volumes.
